WORK WITH US[™]

We recently held our annual sales kick-off meeting and invited Devin Henderson as our special guest to entertain our group of sales associates and district sales managers. After a long day of training, Devin presented our group with his program, “Schmooze’em or Lose’em,” which fit into the overall theme of our training. To the delight of the audience, he had them laughing in their seats; moreover, Devin offered ideas on how to win over customers. Conversation flowed into dinner about that certain “magic” he has!

Devin was professional and entertaining. We were amazed at how funny, talented and creative he was. Devin included key points of the day into his presentation, which also “wowed” the crowd. I would recommend Devin Henderson to anyone looking for an extra special event!
