

SPEAKER BIO

DEVIN HENDERSON

The Drop Guy.

Award-winning comedian and magician Devin Henderson combines his unusual collection of talents onstage to inspire people to perform at their best at work and in life. Devin has given a TED talk, is the author of "Share Your Magic" and is a Certified Speaking Professional, which is like the black belt of public speaking. So don't mess with him - his humor is lethal. Devin has opened for comedians Mike Birbiglia and Sinbad, and inspires audiences coast to coast to DROP mental barriers that impede effectiveness and pick UP practices that elevate excellence. He has presented in all fifty states, except Hawaii, Alaska...and about fifteen others.

KEYNOTE TITLE & DESCRIPTION

"DROP"

DROP is an entertaining and interactive keynote experience that teaches people how to elevate their degree of excellence. Devin shows people which habits they just must "drop" into and out of their daily routines in order to maximize engagement, effectiveness and enjoyment in all they do. With a background as an award-winning magician, comedian and soccer free-stylist, Devin's presentation is anything but boring. As he drops the mic with his comedy and jaws with his magic and soccer tricks, he also drops encouraging words that inspire people to show kindness, embrace failure, and find their sense of humor.
